

Crusoe's Retreat offers a unique holiday experience in an intimate resort, set in tropical gardens, with a white sand beach. The Resort shares its borders with the Namaqumaqa "friendly" Village, offering guests the rare opportunity to experience the real Fiji first hand. The friendly atmosphere and interaction between staff, guests and residents of the village is what makes this resort so exceptional. When you stay in this idyllic paradise you will realise you have discovered Fiji's Best Kept Secret.

ACCOMMODATION

Our 11 Seaside bures are set in landscaped tropical gardens close to the beach, while the 18 Seaview bures are on the hillside, enjoying panoramic views of the lagoon and Pacific Ocean beyond. Bures can accommodate three adults, or two adults and two children. All bures have ceiling fans, refrigerator, tea and coffee making facilities, bathrooms with double vanities and their own patio with outdoor furniture.

LOCATION

Crusoe's Retreat on Fiji's beautiful Coral Coast is a two hour drive from Nadi airport and just 20 minutes from the "Adventure capital of Fiji", Pacific Harbour. The resort is set on 10 acres of tropical gardens surrounded by native vegetation 4 kilometers from the main Queens Highway, making this a peaceful, secluded location.
